

Why Partner With Catapult

What your organization gains from a Catapult-led capital campaign.

— The Outcomes We Deliver

A Campaign Built to Succeed

Readiness, case strength, and gift capacity are tested before a single dollar is asked.

Larger Leadership Gifts

Research, training, and disciplined solicitation lift the top of your gift chart.

A Confident Board & Staff

Leaders are coached to make the ask, so your team grows through the campaign.

Donors Who Stay

Recognition and stewardship carry loyalty well past the final pledge.

The Catapult Advantage

A national partner that carries your campaign from feasibility to final pledge.

Catapult has partnered with organizations for more than 35 years, supporting capital, preservation, and comprehensive campaigns nationwide, with a hands-on partnership to leadership, staff, and volunteers.

— Why Organizations Choose Catapult

35+ Years of Experience

Decades guiding capital, preservation, and comprehensive campaigns nationwide.

A National Team

Headquartered in Nevada with offices across the country, giving every campaign local attention.

One Accountable Partner

Capital campaigns, major gifts, planned giving, and donor engagement from one firm.

Values-First Partnership

Quality over quantity, honesty, and integrity guide every donor relationship.

Capital Campaign Methodology

A feasibility-first approach that tests readiness before a single dollar is asked.

Every campaign begins with a comprehensive Feasibility Study designed to assess readiness, donor interest, and leadership gift potential, followed by a dedicated planning phase before solicitation begins.

— How the Study & Campaign Are Built

4 Phases

Feasibility, Campaign Planning, Quiet Phase, and Public Phase

50-60

Confidential donor interviews during the Study

30-40 Min

Length of each confidential interview

3-4 Months

Typical timeline for the interview process

Top 10

Leadership prospects profiled with major donor research

100+

Additional individual, corporate & foundation prospects

24-36 Mo

Typical full campaign runway from study to final pledge

Bi-Weekly

Leadership meetings throughout the engagement

The Capital Campaign Journey

Five connected phases, carried by one accountable partner from start to finish.

From Feasibility to Final Pledge

1

Feasibility Study

Confidential donor interviews test readiness, case strength, and gift potential.

2

Campaign Planning

Three to six months of data prioritization, materials, and volunteer recruitment.

3

Quiet Phase

Major and leadership gifts are cultivated and solicited before any announcement.

4

Campaign Connect

Public-phase engagement broadens the donor base and builds momentum.

5

Stewardship

Recognition, reporting, and renewal sustain loyalty long after the goal is met.

Key Areas Explored During the Feasibility Study

Case for Support Strength

Leadership Gift Capacity

Campaign Timing &
Readiness

Volunteer Leadership
Potential

Program Benefits

One dedicated team and a disciplined process, engaged at every phase of the campaign.

— What's Included

A Dedicated Campaign Team

A Senior Executive, Creative Writer, Account Manager, and Prospect Researchers.

Full-Time Major Donor Research

Wealth analysis and prospect intelligence are included throughout at no additional cost.

Leadership-Level Solicitation Training

Senior leaders coach staff, board, and volunteers to confidently make the ask.

Monthly Campaign Reporting

Gift chart to actuals, progress toward goal, and benchmark timelines, every month.

Naming & Recognition Strategy

A complete framework for donor recognition, naming opportunities, and gift acceptance.

One Accountable Partner

Bi-weekly leadership meetings and on-site support from feasibility through the public phase.